

Ag and Conservation Partner Forum III
“Increasing the Adoption of the Management of Ag Drainage Water for Conservation Benefits”

February 14, 2012
10:00 to 12:30 am - Room 104A
USDA Whitten Building
12th street, SW and Jefferson Drive
Washington, D.C.

(Moderator: Dave White, Chief NRCS)

Welcome and Opening Remarks Dave White, Chief NRCS
National Summit Video Presentation – Alex Echols, Consultant, Sand County Foundation
Follow-up Strategy to National Summit – Tom Christensen, Regional Conservationist, Central, NRCS
Ag Drainage Water Mgt and Wetland Conservation Trips to MN and ND - Dave White, Chief NRCS
Perspective on the Ag. Drainage Water Management/Wetland Conservation Dialogue in ND and MN –
Brad Redlin, Director Ag Programs, Izaak Walton League
Ag. Drainage Water Support Task Force Report – Jane Frankenberger, Professor, Purdue University
Perspective on Drainage Water Management Practices - Jane Frankenberger, Professor, Purdue U.
NRCS AGWAM Team Activity Plan and Progress Report - Paul Sweeney, Senior Project Leader, NRCS
Summary of State AG Water Mgt Plans - Paul Sweeney, Senior Project Leader, NRCS
DWM Potential State Maps and Tables – Chris Smith, Nat’l Leader, Technical Soil Services, NRCS
Issues, Opportunities, and Feedback All
Closing Comments Dave White, Chief NRCS

Sand County Foundation National “Managing Water Harvesting Results” Summit Website:

www.agwaterforum.org

NRCS Water Management Website:

www.nrcs.usda.gov/wps/portal/nrcs/detailfull/national/water/manage/